| Marshall       | Elaine Brookshire and members of the Rules/Bylaws/Policies Committee | Chapter Standing Rules: Easing the Pain of Composing and Updating
By use of handouts and discussion, this workshop will help with composing and/or updating chapter Standing Rules. Handouts will consist of a template for possible use in composing, as well as a criteria sheet, prepared by International, listing items to include when reviewing/updating chapter Standing Rules. |
| Madison        | Holly O’Neal | Google Can Help You with That!
Discover some of the ways Google Apps can help simplify your life, your DKG membership or your teaching. |
| Redstone       | Cathy Daugherty | What’s on Your Mind?
Join your DKG International Society Representative for an informal roundtable discussion of Society topics that interest you. This opportunity is open to all members, and will especially benefit chapter officers. |
| Monte Sano     | Madeline Buchanan | Promoting Your Chapter is Easier than You Think
Intimidated by doing a chapter website and evaluating it according to the International standards?? This workshop will familiarize you with the new procedures to help your chapter webmaster and members evaluate your website so that it can be linked to the International website. |

| Marshall    | Scholarship/World Fellowship Committee                                       | Scholarships, Awards, and World Fellowship. What’s it all about?
Scholarship/World Fellowship Chairman, Allison Hill, will discuss International and Alabama State scholarships. Heather Linville, International scholarship recipient, will discuss how to successfully apply for a scholarship. Linda Conklan, Beta Epsilon chapter president, will discuss her Lucille Cornetet award. Alabama State President, Donna Butler, will discuss the World Fellowship program and adopting a World Fellowship recipient as a pen pal. |
| Madison     | Wendy Stephens, Susan Copeland                                               | Membership: “You Are Our Future, Ladies!”
“The future is here.” “What will our future look like”?                                                                                                                                                    |
| Redstone    | Cathy Daugherty                                                             | Building Confidence with the New Dues Processing Procedure
Learn more about the new dues processing procedure beginning with the 2019-2020 fiscal year. Become familiar with the electronic process that will compute all mathematical calculations to lighten the work for both chapter and state organization treasurers. Open to all, but most beneficial for chapter treasurers. |
| Monte Sano  | Theresa Jensen, Lacey                                                        | Publishing and Writing Today: An Art and Business
Learn about how publishing, writing, and marketing your work has changed! In the world of digital publishing, the modern writer can easily have their writing edited, published, and marketed, all without the traditional publisher or publicist. You will learn about the newer ways of getting your (or your students’) writing polished and published with relative ease. After the presentation, author Lacey will be signing copies of her latest “tour-able history” book, Amazing Alabama: The Bicentennial Edition. |
