See you at the JW Marriott in downtown Indianapolis in July!

Convention registration

Registration is a snap! Go to the dkg.org website to register or check the Jan/Feb issue of DKG NEWS. Your money goes farther when you register for the entire convention. However, you have the option of a one-day only registration. That includes any 24-hour period, Monday through Friday. To avoid a late fee, be sure to register by June 28th.

Indiana members will be assigned a table hostess responsibility for the Celebration Luncheon or the Friday evening banquet, taking into consideration whether they choose the full-convention registration or a one-day registration.

Members greeting at the airport or in the hotel on Saturday and Sunday do not need to register for those two days.

The one-day registration badge will be used for each day beginning with Tuesday. Those requesting one-day registration for opening night (Monday night) will have the same colored stripe along the bottom of the badge as for Tuesday.

Workshops, workshops, workshops

Today is not too soon to check out more than 120 workshops at www.dkg.org. By the way, have you heard that eight Indiana members are workshop presenters?

It's a sleep-over!

When you choose to register for a room at the JW Marriott, your name will be entered into the daily Meet the Block drawings. Terrific items like a 2015 Regional registration, jewelry, technology, and other valuable prizes could be yours! DKG members receive a discounted room price of $139. Self-parking is 30% off. What a deal!

Need help with that hotel reservation? Go to <https://resweb.passkey.com/go/deltakappa> OR call 1-866-704-6162.

Rebecca Roland is waiting for your call!

Let her know YOU are ready to be a convention volunteer. Email her at bryantsis2@att.net or call (765) 284-5142. Ask a chapter member to sign up with you.

Attention, early risers —

The convention registration table needs volunteers who are early risers. Registration will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m., Sunday through Thursday. Friday, it is open 8 a.m. to 12 noon. The table will be closed during the general sessions and the Celebration Luncheon.

After contacting Volunteer Chair Rebecca Roland, then contact Jo Jones at immsjji@comcast.net; 812-689-4752 (H); or 812-621-0237 (C) to schedule a convenient registration table time.

Which meals are for me?

1. The Celebration Luncheon is exactly that — a celebration. If you nominated a community newspaper, television or radio station, or website, the winners are announced at the luncheon. A key women educator will be honored at the presentation of the International Achievement Award.

2. The NE Regional Breakfast is a must — an opportunity to enjoy the company of members living in our own Northeast Region. Good food and good fellowship go hand in hand as we support the International Emergency Fund — a source of financial help to members in time of major loss due to natural catastrophic disasters.

3. The Banquet on Friday night is highlighted by the presentation of state presidents, entertainment by the convention chorus, and presentation of the gavel to the incoming International president. Before you know it, you will be saying goodbye to your new DKG friends and making plans to meet again!

Let's fill those tote bags!

Now is the final push to gather items for the registration bags. Several chapters have stepped up, committed to providing specific items, yet we are far from our goal.

Items still needed are:

- 1430 hand sanitizers
- 1500 highlighters
- 1500 Post-It-Notes

Consider supplying what your chapter can manage or consider a cash donation, designating what items should be purchased. Watch for sales at Big Lots, Dollar Stores, and office supply stores.
