

Looking for New Members – Where?

Always consider the possibility of recruiting potential new members.

Remember an educator is an instructor, teacher, trainer, and creator of materials for any number, any age, any audience, and in any location.

Where shall I look?

- ✓ School or work place for regular and part-time teaching staff, specialists, substitutes, support personnel, and administrators
- ✓ District, county, state, national, international schools; countrywide service centers; universities; professional career training institutes
- ✓ Grade level, department, curriculum or professional development meetings, conferences, workshops, and conventions
- ✓ Community colleges, adult and community education courses
- ✓ Board of Education, local community, and public board meetings
- ✓ Organized community park, recreation, sport, and leisure time programs
- ✓ Pre-school, private, parochial, charter, alternative schools, and senior citizen centers
- ✓ Hospital, nursing home, assisted living, and care centers
- ✓ Public libraries, museums, zoos, institutes, and service organizations
- ✓ Private businesses and corporations for individuals responsible for providing training and in-service training or creating instructional or training materials
- ✓ Health, wellness, personal growth, travel, enrichment, hobby, parenting, human growth and development speakers and events
- ✓ Local tutors and private teachers (instruments, drama, painting, ...)
- ✓ Social and community events
- ✓ Internet interactions and relationships
- ✓ Where else? ...
