

MU CHAPTER ATTENDS BRUNCH

Mu Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma International Society enjoyed the Tri-Chapter Brunch with Beta Theta, and host chapter Gamma Lambda. The brunch was held at Edgecombe Community College, in the beautiful Fleming Atrium. The theme was "Taking Care of ...Me!"

A warm welcome was given by Becky Johnson, Gamma Lambda President. The devotion and blessing were given by Paula Flythe, Gamma Lambda member. Special remarks were delivered by Dr. Deborah Lamm, Edgecombe Community College President, and Gamma Lambda member; Patricia Taylor, Eta State Delta Kappa Gamma President, and Mu Chapter member; Mary Pat Omer, Eta State Region One Director, and Pi member.

Members of each chapter were recognized. After which, they sang "My Bonnie Lies over the Ocean." The vocal included a little physical exercise. The sing-a-long was followed by an entertaining presentation by Angie Ruffin, Gamma Lambda member. She performed her own version of "I Will Survive!" and it was hilarious.

The delicious meal was catered by Addie and David Lewis. They are the owners of Addie's Café, located on, Main Street in Tarboro, NC

Ann Warren, Gamma Lambda Recording Secretary, introduced the program presenter, Timothy Livengood, Outreach Manager for Behavioral Health, Vidant Healthcare. Livengood gave an energetic and humorous presentation. The focus of the presentation was on how the workplace stresses in the Healthcare System are similar to those in Education. The final part of the program was the calming and relaxing voice of Counselor and Clinical Psychologist, Cindy Thomas, of Vidant Behavioral Health Management, in Tarboro.

After the program, the Delta Kappa Gamma Sisters sang the Delta Kappa Gamma song. This was followed by, Schools for Africa Raffle, by Johanna Owens, Gamma Lambda First Vice President. The raffle brought in about $200.00 for this project. Door prizes were presented by Judy Van Male and Jennifer Derby, Gamma Lambda members.

The Tri-Chapter Brunch is held annually, with the host chapter rotating each year.
